PREFACE.

393397

It is with somewhat of pride that we present to our citizens the Second Volume of the City Directory—pride in the success and prosperity of our rapidly-growing city, which warrants the enterprise, and pride in doing what we can to develop its resources, and aid in the advancement of its prosperity. The list of names show a large increase in the population, while the increase of business houses indicate a large acquisition to the wealth of the city. Since the date of our last Directory, marked and important changes have been wrought throughout the city, which seems to have passed out of its embryo condition into that of stately growth and positive greatness. Things hoped for, have come to be, and “manifest destiny” has given place to practical development. Among the public improvements in Des Moines since the publication of our last CITY DIRECTORY have been the completion of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, the Central Presbyterian Church, an elegant and massive building; the Lutheran Church; a fine School House on the East Side, and another on the West Side, which is the finest school building in the State; a Steam Fire Engine, and three bridges across the Des Moines. Among the most notable private improvements are the residence of B. F. Allen, the finest west of the Hudson river; Judge Cole's residence, the Register Building, the business blocks erected by Vincent, Bush, Moore, Jones, and Hierb; Otis, Heimer & Shepherd's Steam Flouring Mill, the Capital Flouring Mill, Foster Bro's. and Carver, Young & Co.'s Planing Mills.

From a report made by the canvassers of this Directory, the population of Des Moines may be safely set down at fifteen thousand.

IOWA COLLECTION

The labor of compiling a Directory, even in a place like this, is very great, and errors must inevitably exist, although much care has been exercised to avoid them.

Special attention is asked to the advertisements. They are published for the express purpose of having them read, and representing as they do the live and energetic men of the city, we do not hesitate to indorse what they set forth.

We desire to thank the various county and city officers for courtesies extended in compiling the work.

The rooms of the Association are nicely fitted up, and supplied with the necessary furniture. The library was opened September, 1867, with 2,300 books on its shelves, which were selected with great care. Since that time numerous additions by purchase and donation have been made, so that the library now consists 2,741 volumes, classified as follows: Poetry, 173; Fiction, 273; American History, 169; Life and Memoir, 215; Religion, Theology, and Church History, 199; Science, 195; Travel, Adventure, and Discovery, 149; American Literature, 86; French and Ancient History, 118; Continental and European History, 138; English Literature, 202; Bohn's

POST OFFICE.

Office at present, Third Street, near Court Avenue.

POSTAL RULES.

To insure their correct transmission and delivery, letters should be plainly directed in ink; if to a large city, the street and number, or letter-box, should be given; and if not to any important city or town, the county as well as office and State should be given.

Prepayment by stamps is required on all letters to places within the United States at the rate of three cents per half ounce or fraction thereof.

Letters insufficiently stamped are returned to the writers, if known, for the additional postage; otherwise they are forwarded and the amount due collected on delivery.

Letters not prepaid by stamps, those bearing stamps cut from stamped envelopes, or revenue stamps, or such stamps as were in use prior to 1861, are treated as "unmailable," and, unless the writers are known, are sent to the Dead Letter Office.

Full prepayment by stamps is required on all transient printed matter, foreign and domestic.

All drop-letters must be prepaid by postage stamps.

Letters addressed to initials and fictitious persons or firms are not deliverable.

Samples of flour, sugar, tobacco, and packages containing poisons, explosive chemicals, oils, liquids of any kind, or any thing liable to injure or endanger the safety of the mails, will not be received.

Valuable letters should in all cases be registered when money is designed to be sent, money orders or drafts should, if practicable, be procured. MONEY should never be enclosed in an ordinary letter.

Letters bearing a request to return to the writer if unclaimed within thirty days or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post-office and State across the left-hand side of the envelope, will be so returned free of postage. This precaution is recommended as a certain and early means of recovering valuable letters not delivered, and also of knowing whether letters are received by the persons to whom they are addressed.

Letters are "forwarded" to any place in the United States without additional postage, but neither newspapers to regular subscribers, or transient printed matter, can be re-mailed or forwarded without prepayment at transient rates.

Any written communication in or upon any newspaper, pamphlet, magazine, or other printed matter sent in the mail, subjects the package to letter postage and the person sending the same to a severe penalty.

OFFICE RULES.

Box Rents are by law payable in advance at the beginning of each quarter, and all boxes and drawers on which the rent remains due and unpaid on the 10th day of each quarter will be held and declared "ruant." All the mail matter in one box must be taken out by one party, and will not be separated for different persons renting the same box.

Persons having boxes are cautioned to have their letters and papers addressed to the same. This precaution is necessary, as the large and rapidly increasing number of boxes occupied, and the great number of persons of the same and similar names using different boxes renders it impossible for clerks to make accurate distribution unless the box is indicated.

Clerks are instructed to deliver mail matter from boxes only to persons renting the same, or upon their written order, or to those known to be authorized to receive it.

Clerks are instructed in no case to open mail pouches after they have been locked, for the purpose of mailing letters for individuals. The times of closing of the mails are published in the city papers so that all can be advised, and the mails are never closed until the latest moment of the time fixed.

OFFICE HOURS.

For the delivery of mail and sale of stamps, 7 A. M. to 7½ P. M. On Sundays, 8½ to 10 A. M. For money order business, from 8 A. M. to 6 P. M. except Sundays. Registered letters are received or delivered during all regular office hours.

These rules will be varied should changes, from accident or otherwise, in the arrival of important mails, make it necessary for the accommodation of the public.

MONEY ORDER DEPARTMENT.

The money order system presents a safe, cheap, and convenient method of transmitting small sums through the mails. It is not the design of the system to facilitate the financial transactions of the mercantile community by assuming the functions of banks in the furnishing of exchange for large sums of money, but to promote the convenience of the general public in the transmission of small sums to all parts of the country. Orders are limited to $50, but additional orders not exceeding the aggregate sum of $150 00, can be procured by the same person at the same time.

RATES.

Orders not exceeding $20.00.....	10 cents.
Orders over $20.00 and not exceeding $30.00	15 cents.
Orders over $30.00 and not exceeding $40.00	20 cents.
Orders over $40.00 and not exceeding $50.00	25 cents.

REGISTRY DEPARTMENT.

Valuable letters will, upon application, be registered to any part of the United States, or to Canada, Great Britain, Holland, the Italian States, or States of the North German Union, including Austria. The postage and fee to be prepaid. Fee 20 cents to any place in the United States; 5 cents to Canada and Nova Scotia; 8 cents to the other countries named.

ADVERTISED LETTERS.

All unclaimed letters, (except those enumerated below), are advertised in Sunday's DAILY REGISTER. Persons calling for advertised letters should give the date of the list. The following classes of letters are NOT advertised: Drop letters, unless bearing a three-cent stamp; letters bearing requests to be returned to writers if unclaimed; letters addressed to care of hotels and returned from thence to the post office as unclaimed; letters returned from the Dead Letter Office to the writers; box letters; letters from any of the Departments of the Government; circulars and printed matter.
